

Mr. Lun Dara is currently a Community Organizer for Banteay Srei in Battambang, where his responsibilities mainly include agriculture program delivery, where he maintains relationships with relevant stakeholders, does capacity building and training with farmers, and does M&E. His position also includes networking and project management and administration. Previously, Mr. Dara held a position as an Agriculture Officer (Consultant) for the organization. He has been working with Banteay Srei since mid-2017.

Mr. Dara has two degrees: a Nursing degree from the Regional Training of Battambang and a B.A. in Rural Development from the University of Battambang. His previous work experience includes a position with Volunteer Service Oversea (VSO-Cambodia), the Farmer Light Association, and the Reproductive Health Association of Cambodia.