

Ms. Nin Chenda has been working with the non-profit sector for more than 10 years in both leadership and management positions.

Currently the Provincial Manager of Banteay Srei Siem Reap, she has held three different positions over the course of 14 years at the organization. From 2005 to 2008, Ms. Chenda was a Community Organizer. In this position, she managed two districts: Purk and Angkorthom. Then, from 2009 to 2014, she held a gratifying position as a Community Development Coordinator, where she managed two provinces: Battambang and Siem Reap.

In her current position, which she started in 2015, she is part of the Management Committee and manages all of Siem Reap province.

After completing her high school diploma at Borvel High School, Ms. Chenda went on to complete a one year degree in Agriculture at the Provincial Department of Agriculture in Battambang.